Rotaract President Leonie Duane and Hobsons Bay Mayor, Cr Dick Murdoch inaugurate the time capsule. (26 Jan 2000)

On Australia Day 2000, Rotary's Hobsons Bay Millennium Time Capsule, made of 7 PVC pipes, was lowered into a 12-tonne concrete vault. It contained 34 mini-capsules with messages from 12,000 students and 100 adults

School's mini-capsules in 2000

Each Hobsons Bay school had their own mini-capsule. Now, nearly 25 years later, reflections from the past form a legacy for the future.

Hobsons Bay Millennium Time Capsule

(26 Jan 2000)

Marking the millennium, the Hobsons Bay community watched as 7 PVC pipes containing 34 mini-capsules were lowered into a 12-tonne concrete vault. Rotary's Hobsons Bay Millennium Time Capsule housed messages from 12,000 students and 100 adults.

At the summit of Mount Truganina, buried beside guardian statue Time Beacon, the time capsule prepares to emerge from its dormancy. Inaugurated almost 25 years ago, the project strengthened community ties and encouraged a sense of belonging to the city's history.
